Sol-ving a crime is a dif-fi-cult time Lon-don's dark cor-ners are too ma-ny—

 8 ha-ven't got a pen ny if Sher-lock Holmes were here he would-nt give them an-y—
 11 Sol-ving a crime is a dif-fi-cult time But Lon-don-ers we are and Lon-don-ers will find

2. Mysteries abound in London Town
 Holmes was the expert in our city
 Now he is gone but the mysteries live on Watson has Miss Marple, who may be very pretty
 The case is still not solved - well isn't that a pity
 Mysteries abound in London Town
 But Londoners we are, and Londoners don't frown
 (Gentlemen) Bom bom ba, ba ba ba bom bom ba

chorus: It's elementary, Watson
 (Ladies: ah - open your eyes)

So simple, we suppose
 (Ladies: ah - it's a disguise)

It's common sense, dear Watson
 (Ladies: ah - what a surprise)

The clue's right under your nose

3. Baker Street is a good place to meet
 Drinking whisky by the fire
 Scotland Yard with Inspector Lestrade
 They have called us here from all corners of the Empire
 To look for Sherlock Holmes - we'll search and never tire.
 Baker Street is a good place to meet
 And Londoners we are - there is no defeat
 (Gentlemen) Bom bom ba, ba ba ba bom bom ba

chorus: It's elementary, Watson...
